MELANCHOLY NEWS!!

It may be, to learn that Humburg must die, but at the same time the grief is soothed by the consciousness that it died early.

J. BROWNLEE & CO.

have possessed themselves of that invaluable secret, that enables them to kill Humburg wherever they show themselves, but for the present they shall only let it's specific operations extend far enough to benefit the people of Marshall and the adjoining Counties.

NEW GOODS

are advertised on every corner, for sale cheap-er than they can be bought anywhere in the world, &c.,

NO CREDIT,

Stores every man in the face as well as promises to buy every thing at the "highest prices." These things are Humburgs, and "Headquarters" as well as the "Regulator" are the chief of these noisy parades of show, without reality.

J. BROWNLEE & CO

are once more at home, and have a Reality to offer you and no Humburg. They have a large assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Straw Goods, Boots, Shoes, Leather, glass and queens ware, and every style of goods kept in or suitable for this market; from the highest and costliest that are ever called for, to the most common and cheap that can be used.—They were bought for part cash, and part on credit, at the most favorable prices to be had in eastern markets. (It's all gammon for any man here to tell you he bought for cash prices, for no man here buys for cash alone.) We expect to make a living by our business, and we charge a profit on our goods; but we only charge in proportion to their real value and cost. We will sell you cheap, at steady uniform prices, and not make your eye water with one price at less than cost, and then "sal you to picket" on something else. We have dealt with you for years—have kept good goods and sold at fair rates. We don't intend to break down, and therefore can't sell cheaper than we buy, and don't pretend to do business in competition with men who do, but we will give you every cent the market will warrant for all of your produce, and sell you goods as cheap as we can and live. We deal honestly by you, and don't expect to get rich off of you, but hope to make money by long and steady perseverance, as every man should, and gain it by little.

Come and see us,

Bring your families who want to trade, send your neighbors, and bring on your produce for exchange. We are selling for of some kind, and don't expect to credit much, for no man here buys for cash alone. We have told you the plain truth, you know it, now come along and see if you are not satisfied to trade with our sincere friends.

WONDERFUL And Extraordinary Medicine!

W. B. FARRELL'S CELEBRATED ORIGINAL
Arabian Liniment.

GOOD FOR MAN AND BEAST!

Grand Depot, 52 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

SURFACE OF THE BODY.

It is not many years since it was fully proved to the satisfaction of the world, that the skin of our bodies, as skin of most animals, would absorb poisonous substances, producing disease and death. The wonderful cures performed by Arabian physicians with external applications, is not a matter of so much surprise since this fact has become so well known, and as the surface of the body is the principal medium through which many medicines should operate, and by which means alone many diseases can be cured, this great remedy has been extensively used, and acquired a reputation which no other medicine has yet attained.

On the Human System.

It has obtained a reputation truly wonderful, in all diseases of the bones, muscles, stiff joints, lameness, Swellings, and painful affections, nervous and inflammatory diseases, &c.

For Horses and Cattle.

It is without a rival in Sweeney, Stiff combs, Founder, Big head, Sprains, and Swellings, Galls, Wounds, Film on the Eye, Bites of Poisonous Snakes, and all Weakness and inflammation.

The Voice of the People—Read what they say.

Dr. J. L. Pfaff, Westfield, Indiana, in a letter to W. B. Farrell, dated January 23rd 1850, says: "I have used your Liniment and other medicines, and finding them excellent and of ready sale, and medicines which should be in every house and stable, I wish to know upon what terms you will supply me with a sufficient quantity to supply the State of Indiana—south and east of the Wabash."

Respectfully Yours, J. L. PFAFF."

COUNTERFEIT MIXTURES.

Advertised as Genuine Arabian Liniment.

The following is taken from the Chicago Commercial Advertiser, dated August 20, 1850. The Editor, Mr. Dutch, was formerly a resident of Peoria, Ill., at which place I formerly manufactured my Arabian Liniment, and is well known to the facts in regard to the origin of this Great Remedy.

Our Trade Advertiser, LINDSEY.—We noticed in yesterday's Democrat, two advertisements of Farrell's Arabian Liniment; H. G. Farrell denouncing W. B. Farrell's Liniment as a spurious preparation, and vice versa. Now we do not know as to H. G. Farrell's being a fraud, but we do know that Mr. W. B. Farrell is the original founder of this invaluable mixture, and that his is the true and genuine Arabian Liniment.

Beware of imposition.—Look out for a spurious preparation, a base counterfeit called "H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment."

The true and genuine Arabian Liniment
